CANUCKS TICKETS

We are excited to introduce several new pricing options for the upcoming season. These new areas will give Canucks fans more affordable opportunities to experience games live at Rogers Arena.

Single game tickets start as low as $44* for select games. Similarly to the past two seasons, fans will see prices rise and fall on a regular basis in real-time. Like the travel and entertainment industries, fans who purchase their tickets early are more likely to get the best value and will enjoy greater overall availability, pricing and seat locations.

Season Ticket Members will continue to receive the best prices compared to buying an equal package on a single game basis. Full season members save approximately 40% on average.

For more information on Canucks tickets or Season Ticket Memberships visit canucks.com/tickets or call 604.899.GOAL (4625) and press option 2.

*All prices includes GST, but are subject to applicable services charges. Average payment per month for 10-month payment play after initial 10% deposit.

UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS THAT UNITE US ALL

Whether it's an once in a life time opportunity, or a bond that spans a lifetime, Canucks Sports & Entertainment is focused on creating unique connections and experiences for fans and their favorite athletes and performers.

Consistently ranked by Billboard as one of the top venues in Canada, Rogers Arena is the home of unforgettable live experiences for guests. Rogers Arena is the venue of the National Hockey League's Vancouver Canucks and plays host to some of the largest musical acts in the world. In 2010, Rogers Arena was rebranded as Canada Hockey Place during the 2010 Winter Olympics from February 13-18 and will be one of the main venues of the 2017/18 World Junior Championships. Former tenants also include the Vancouver Grizzlies of the NBA (1995-2001), Vancouver Ravens of the NHL (2001-2004) and Vancouver Voodoo of the RHI (1996).

Since opening on September 19, 1995 with a sold out show by Bryan Adams, Rogers Arena has welcomed more than 29 million visitors, playing host to over 150 sporting and entertainment events each year. Last year, over 1.1 million guests came through the doors over the course of the year. Through the support of passionate Canucks fans, Rogers Arena played host to 474 consecutive sell-out games over a span of 11 seasons from 2002 to 2014.

UNIQUE MOMENTS ARE BUILT BY THE DETAILS

CSE has a philosophy of building meaningful relationships with their fans and place an important focus on hospitality. From the way each guest is greeted, to the presentation of food, to décor in the building, to game entertainment, all areas of service, products and entertainment are examined closely to provide a premium experience.

There are a range of seating options available for guests, that all offer great sightlines of games and events. For guests wanting to share an experience in a group setting or to network with likeminded individuals, CSE has created a number of world-class premium club areas for guests to enjoy. Some of these examples include Encore and two Loge areas. Private, executive suites are also available in addition to a variety of great seating options in the upper and lower bowl.

Innovation and local are what inspire the menus around Rogers Arena. From the concourse to suite and club areas, the cosmopolitan feel of the Vancouver food scene extends around the building. CSE also provides a number of options for specific needs, whether it is dietary restrictions or family friendly options.

GROWING A COMMUNITY

CSE places great value in its local community and has strived to demonstrate corporate stewardship.

CSE's charitable arm, the Canucks for Kids Fund, has contributed over $56 million dollars to local charities that support children's health and wellness, education and grassroots hockey. Players, management, coaches and staff have also dedicated their time to support a number of initiatives, including hospital visits, hockey camps and Live 2 Give – an annual event where staff are given a paid work day to donate their time to a charity of their choice. CSE also celebrates its vibrant and diverse community, taking part in such events as the Pride Parade, the Viasakhi Festival and will also host a Chinese New Year's game for the first time at Rogers Arena this season.

Based in one of the most environmentally progressive cities in North America, CSE seeks out ways to decrease their ecological footprint and make a positive impact on the environment. A founding member of the Green Sports Alliance, which originated in the Pacific Northwest and grew to over 230 sports teams from 20 different leagues, CSE has implemented a number of green initiatives. In 2013, Rogers Arena partnered with SHIFT Energy in order to bring an automated Energy Optimization System to the building. The system monitors the energy consumption of the building in real-time, adjusting aspects such as temperature and lighting accordingly to decrease energy cost by 20%. The building's emphasis on the selling of local products and support of sustainable farming, as well as the continued efforts of CSE to encourage a zero waste policy, contribute to their environmental successes as well.

There are more than 700 children and families currently on the program based out of their two locations—in Vancouver and Abbotsford.

Core Beneficiary: BC Children's Hospital (BCCH) is the province's only full-service, pediatric acute care hospital, which serves more than 84,000 seriously ill or injured children every year. The CFKF has granted more than $7 million to BCCH and most recently committed $1 million towards the construction of a Canucks-themed playground in the newly constructed BCCH. This grant will also support Child Life programs and mental health initiatives.

Hockey Talks: The Vancouver Canucks and CFKF launched Hockey Talks in 2012 in response to the sudden passing of Canucks player Rick Rypien. The campaign features game-night activations and a social media campaign designed to encourage a conversation about mental health and to alleviate the stigma associated with mental illness. The Hockey Talks program has expanded nation-wide and is now a staple in each Canadian NHL city each season.

Canucks for Kids Fund Telethon: The annual Canucks for Kids Fund Telethon is broadcast annually around a Canucks home game and has raised more than $7 million since it began in 1990. Hundreds of volunteers, including players' and coaches' significant others, play a key role by answering phones and taking pledges.

SuperSkills: Hosted at Rogers Arena, the entire Vancouver Canucks roster and one lucky minor hockey team take part in a fun team competition, going head-to-head in events such as Hardest Shot, Fastest Skater, Pass & Score, Shooting Accuracy, Puck Control Relay, and Breakaway Relay. Last season, with the support of Canucks fans, SuperSkills raised $123,000 for the Canucks for Kids Fund and NHLPA Goals & Dreams Fund for KidSport BC. Minor Hockey teams across BC are also presented with the opportunity to receive discounted tickets for fundraising purposes.

CANUCKS ALUMNI

Over the last six decades the Canucks alumni, one of the largest alumni groups in the National Hockey League Alumni Association, has helped raise millions of dollars for charities throughout British Columbia through various events on and off the ice. They have forged ongoing partnerships with a number of charitable organizations such as the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Vancouver/South Coast BC, BC Cancer Society, ALS Canada, Royal Columbian Hospital Foundation, Road Hockey Conquers Cancer, Hockey Helps the Homeless and the Canucks for Kids Fund.

OTHER COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Canucks for Kids Fund 50/50: With the generosity of our loyal fans and dedicated team of volunteers, the Canucks for Kids Fund 50/50 program is one of the most successful in the NHL. Generating well over a million dollars each season, the majority of the funds raised are directed to Canuck Place Children's Hospice, BC Children's Hospital Foundation and the Canucks Autism Network.

Canucks for Kids Fund Online 50/50: The Canucks for Kids Fund Online 50/50 raised $277,160 in its first season in 2016/17. The Canucks for Kids Fund receives half of each 50/50 jackpot, providing direct support to BC based charities involved in important children's health, wellness, education and grassroots hockey programs. Please note that Canucks for Kids Fund Online 50/50 is a separate raffle game from the 50/50 game at Rogers Arena during Vancouver Canucks hockey games. Children's Hospital Foundation and the Canucks Autism Network.

Donations in Kind: The Donations in Kind Program supports fundraising events throughout British Columbia by donating player autographed merchandise and memorabilia. The program donates to over 400 fundraising events each season in support of children's health and wellness, education, and grassroots hockey.

Tickets for Kids: With the support and generosity of Canucks Season Ticket Members and sponsor partners, the Canucks Tickets for Kids program provides complimentary tickets to select children's charities.

Community Corner: each season, charities are invited to set up a table on the concourse at Rogers Arena and share information about their programs and services with Canucks fans.

Community Ticket Program: Canucks Sports and Entertainment will donate a portion of unsold tickets to community organizations and charities giving kids, families and community groups the opportunity to attend a Canucks game when they otherwise would not be able to.

The Province EMPTY STOCKING FUND

Empty Stocking Fund: The Vancouver Canucks' wives and girlfriends partner with the Province Empty Stocking Fund during the holiday season and host a balloon raffle on the concourse at Rogers Arena during two home games in the month of December. Through the sales of these prize balloons, thousands of dollars are raised in support of needy families during the holiday season.

Live 2 Give Day: Just as Canucks players have the opportunity to give their time to a number of charities throughout the season, Live 2 Give Day provides Canucks office staff with the same meaningful experience by enabling them to share their skills and knowledge with Lower Mainland charities. Canucks Sports & Entertainment closes its office for a full day so all 200+ staff can volunteer their time a local charity of their choosing. More than 8,000 man hours have been donated since Live 2 Give launched 10 years ago.

HISTORY

TEAM HISTORY

On October 9, 1970 the Vancouver Canucks played the first game of their inaugural NHL season before 15,062 people at the Pacific Coliseum on Renfrew Street, a 3-1 loss to the visiting Los Angeles Kings. The game marked the start of an NHL tradition on the West Coast that endures 46 years to the present day.

Long before an NHL team was formed, the city had already established a strong hockey tradition with the Vancouver Millionaires, who played in the Pacific Coast Hockey Association from 1912 to 1922. At home in the 10,500 seat Denman Arena, the Millionaires swept the Ottawa Senators in a National Hockey Association interleague series to win the Stanley Cup in 1915 (the NHA became the NHL 1917).

The Vancouver Canucks owe the origins of their name to the Pacific Coast Hockey League (1945-51) and Western Hockey League (1952-69) Vancouver Canucks, who enjoyed notable success, capturing six President's/Lester Patrick Cups, two PCHL titles and four WHL titles. The name "Canuck" is generally defined as a slang word to describe a Canadian. Also used in early political cartoons then comic books and personified by fictional character Johnny Canuck, the word Canuck was a term of endearment reflecting the courage and bravery of Canadian soldiers defined during the World Wars. Today it's equally synonymous with the team, its players and fans and an accepted term for a Canadian.

The original Vancouver Canucks roster was built through an Expansion Draft to accommodate the NHL's newest members, Vancouver and Buffalo, shaping the character and identity of the club. Orland Kurtenbach, the first team captain, and Pat Quinn, a defenceman and later General Manager, Head Coach and President, became prominent figures throughout the club's history and are celebrated today as members of the Canucks Ring of Honour for their impact and legacy on the franchise.

In a welcome letter from the club's first season General Manager and Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, Norman R. (Bud) Poile told fans "one thing you can be certain of is the fact that nobody on our club is going to go down without a fight." While the first seasons failed to produce post-season berths, the core was a fierce and formidable group led by Kurtenbach that included Andre Boudrias, Don Lever, Dale Tallon, Dennis Ververgaert and Dennis Kearns.

Still a young team, Vancouver's original ownership group led by Tom Scallen sold the franchise to local businessman Frank Griffiths in 1974. Over the span of the next 22 years the Griffiths family's stewardship of the team witnessed two Stanley Cup Finals, Frank Griffiths' induction to the Hockey Hall of Fame, the succession of leadership to son Arthur Griffiths and the development of significant community contributions, notably the creation of Canuck Place, North America's first free-standing children's hospice.

Vancouver's first playoff series win in 1982 ignited a postseason run to the Stanley Cup Final. The architect of the team and Hockey Hall of Fame member, General Manager Jake Milford had drafted and traded for key players like Stan Smyl, Thomas Gradin and Richard Brodeur in recent years who contributed significantly to the success of the run. Only two losses in three playoff series versus Calgary (3-0), Los Angeles (4-1) and Chicago (4-1) flawed a record march to a Championship match up versus the New York Islanders. Halted by New York in a decisive 4-0 series win the postseason run still produced two significant moments in club history.

The first was the emergence of Stan Smyl who assumed responsibilities as captain due to an injury to Kevin McCarthy. Smyl served as captain and leader of the team for eight seasons and became the first player to have his number 12 retired by the Canucks. The 1982 Stanley Cup run was also significant for the start of a playoff tradition now widely used in sports, 'Towel Power'. During the second game of the Campbell Conference Championship in Chicago, Interim Head Coach Roger Neilson expressed his frustration of the games officiating by placing a white towel on the end of a stick held high in mock surrender. Players on the bench followed suit and when the series returned to Vancouver fans showed their support by waving white towels of their own. A Canuck tradition was born and to commemorate the iconic moment a statue of Roger Neilson holding a stick with a towel on end now stands outside of Rogers Arena.

It took 10 years before Vancouver experienced playoff success again and two more before another storied run to the Cup Finals in 1994. During that time the organization saw the return of Pat Quinn as General Manager and within a few years he added the responsibility of Head Coach to his role. One of Quinn's first major moves was to trade for goaltender Kirk McLean and over the next two years he selected Trevor Linden second overall and Pavel Bure 113th in the 1988 and 1989 NHL Drafts respectively.

Linden was named captain at the age of 21, his fourth NHL season, after sharing the captaincy with Dan Quinn and Doug Lidster the previous season. He was the youngest permanent captain in team history. The 1991/92 season was also Pavel Bure's first in the NHL and with 34 goals and 26 assists (34-26-60) through 65 games, Bure won the Calder Memorial Trophy as the league's rookie of the year. Pat

Quinn earned the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year and along with Bure, became the first recipients of NHL awards in franchise history. Bure's number 10 became the fourth and latest jersey to be retired by the club, when it was raised permanently to the rafters on November 2, 2013 following his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame the year prior. The late Pat Quinn will be enshrined into the Hockey Hall of Fame later this year.

A team on the rise, the Canucks returned to the playoffs on the strength of back-to-back 60 goal seasons from Bure, finding early-round success in 1992 and 1993. In 1994 Vancouver entered the postseason as the seventh seed and played an entertaining first round series against Calgary. Fighting off an early exit to the Flames, who led the series three games to one, the Canucks forced each of the next three contests to overtime highlighted by a Game 7 double overtime win.

The road to the Finals continued with series wins against Dallas (4-1) then Toronto (4-1), where a double overtime goal clinched the series for a second time that postseason. Advancing to the Finals against the New York Rangers, Vancouver sealed the first win with a 52 save performance by Kirk McLean. New York won the next three games and facing the same elimination scenario as their first playoff round, Vancouver won Game 5 and held off the Rangers in Game 6 in what many fans and historians consider the greatest game in franchise history.

The game is particularly memorable for the call made by legendary, Hall of Fame broadcaster Jim Robson as Trevor Linden crawled to the bench after taking a hit with seconds remaining: "He will play, you know he'll play, he'll play on crutches! He will play and he'll play at Madison Square Garden on Tuesday night." A cup victory eluded the Canucks however as they fell short by a score of 3-2 in Game 7 at the Garden.

The seasons that followed brought change as Vancouver sought a return to playoff success. In 1995-96, the Canucks moved to a new home in downtown Vancouver, General Motors Place (renamed Rogers Arena in 2010). That same year Arthur Griffiths teamed up with John McCaw Jr. and the company was renamed Orca Bay Sports and Entertainment (OBSE); in 1996 McCaw assumed full control of OBSE.

Roster changes were taking place too including a trade to acquire Markus Naslund from Pittsburgh on March 20, 1996. Though not immediate, the significance of the trade soon became apparent. The additions by trade of Todd Bertuzzi on February 6, 1998 and Brendan Morrison on March 14, 2000 saw the departures of Trevor Linden and Alexander Mogilny respectively but ushered a new era in franchise history when Naslund, Bertuzzi and Morrison were made line mates during the 2001-02 season.

Nicknamed the "West Coast Express" by media and fans the line became one of the most prolific scoring threats in the league. Naslund ranked top-five in NHL scoring for three seasons and was a Hart Trophy finalist, while Bertuzzi twice ranked among the NHL's top five scorers. All three players set career single-season scoring highs while playing together.

Over seven consecutive seasons, Naslund led the team in scoring including six 30-plus goal seasons, three 40-plus goal seasons and league honors in 2002-03 when he earned the Ted Lindsay Award following a 104 point campaign (48-56-104). A Canucks captain for seven seasons, Naslund's number 19 was officially retired on December 11, 2010.

While members of the West Coast Express had a more immediate impact on the roster, General Manager Brian Burke also had an eye to the future, focused specifically on the 1999 Draft selections of twin brothers Daniel and Henrik Sedin. A sequence of three trades on the morning of the Draft allowed the Canucks, who already held the third pick, to add the second overall selection and bring the Sedins to Vancouver – Daniel second and Henrik third overall.

Change and a new direction also occurred off the ice as the locally-owned Aquilini Investment Group (AIG), led by Luigi Aquilini and sons Francesco, Roberto and Paulo Aquilini, reached an agreement to purchase a 50 per cent share of OBSE in November 2004. AIG purchased the remaining 50 per cent of the NHL club and arena in November 2006 and in 2008, the company was renamed Canucks Sports & Entertainment.

Francesco and the Aquilini family have led the Canucks through the longest period of sustained success on the ice, including six Northwest Division titles, two President's Trophies and a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 2011. The family has also invested significantly to upgrade Rogers Arena with a special focus on fan experience since acquiring the team. And in the community, the family launched the Canucks Autism Network and support the Canucks for Kids Fund, the Boys Club Network and the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

Regular season success generated playoff excitement in the early 2000s but only one series win. On June 20, 2006 Alain Vigneault was named Head Coach and nine days later General Manager Dave Nonis traded for goaltender Roberto Luongo. In 2006-07, his first season as a Canuck, Luongo set franchise records for games played (76) and wins (47) and was nominated for the Hart and Vezina Trophies while Alain Vigneault received the Jack Adams Award.

That postseason a first-round series against Dallas produced the longest game in club history and sixth longest in NHL history when after 78:06 in the fourth overtime period, Henrik Sedin scored for the first win of the series. Vancouver won the seven game quarter-final match up but lost in the next round to Anaheim, the eventual Stanley Cup Champions.

That post-season run would also be the last for longtime Canucks Captain Trevor Linden who was reacquired in 2001 and would finish his playing career the following season, leaving as the franchise leader in games played (1140) and assists (415). Linden's number 16 became the second Canucks jersey to be retired when it was raised to the rafters at Rogers Arena on December 18, 2008.

Vancouver's next postseason appearance in 2009 led to a rivalry with Chicago that stretched three consecutive years. Following a four-game quarter-final sweep against St. Louis, the Canucks played the Blackhawks in a semi-final series, which Chicago won (4-2). In the 2010 playoffs another semi-final versus the Blackhawks produced the same 4-2 series result. It was an early ending to an impressive regular season, particularly for Henrik Sedin, who captured the Art Ross and Hart Trophy after a league-leading 112 point season (29-83-112).

The Canucks 2010-11 regular season was a franchise best with 117 points and a league-leading 54-19-9 record that saw the club awarded the President's Trophy. Individual success was further evidence of a successful season. Daniel Sedin led the NHL in scoring to win the Art Ross Trophy with 104 points (41-63-104) and the Ted Lindsay Award. Ryan Kesler was awarded the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the league's best defensive forward and goaltenders Roberto Luongo and Cory Schneider collectively allowed the fewest goals against in the NHL to earn the William Jennings Trophy.

Momentum from the regular season produced the third Stanley Cup run in team history and for the third postseason in a row the Canucks faced off against the Blackhawks - this time in a quarter-final playoff series. Vancouver won the first three games of the series however it took seven games to declare the winner and an overtime goal by Alex Burrows to finish a playoff rival. Current Canucks broadcaster John Shorthouse aptly described the memorable play that secured the series: "Burrows steals, cutting in, shoots, scores! They've slayed the dragon!"

In a semi-final series versus Nashville, Vancouver won 4-2, advancing to the conference final to play San Jose. This series was won by the Canucks 4-1 with a double-overtime goal from Kevin Bieksa securing a spot in the Finals. Three wins through five games against Boston put Vancouver within a win of the Championship but for the second time that postseason a seven game series became necessary. The Bruins bested the Canucks by a 4-0 score.

The 2011-12 regular season was again a NHL best with a 51-22-9 record and 111 points to produce a second consecutive President's Trophy. This time regular season success did not carry over to the postseason and the Canucks fell to the Kings in a first round playoff match-up. Two more early round exits in 2013 and 2015 leave Vancouver still in search of its first Championship. Despite not capturing hockey's greatest prize, Canucks fans supported a consecutive sellout streak at Rogers Arena of 474 games from 2002 to 2014, one of the longest in the history of professional sports.

President Trevor Linden, General Manager Jim Benning and Head Coach Travis Green currently guide the direction of club with Henrik and Daniel Sedin leading the players on ice.

RING OF HONOUR

The Canucks Ring of Honour was launched on the 40th anniversary of the club (the 2010/11 season) to celebrate and salute Canucks heroes who have made a lasting impact on the franchise. Ring of Honour candidates are selected by an advisory committee including former player and current Senior Advisor to the General Manager, Stan Smyl, Hockey Hall of Fame broadcaster, Jim Robson and former Canucks staff member spanning 30 years, Norm Jewison. Mattias Ohlund became the sixth member of the Canucks Ring of Honour on December 16th, 2016, joining Orland Kurtenbach, Kirk McLean, Thomas Gradin, Harold Snepsts, and Pat Quinn.

ORLAND KURTENBACH*INDUCTED OCTOBER 26, 2010

Recognized for his leadership qualities, Kurtenbach was named as the club's inaugural captain in 1970. In the Canucks first year of existence, he led all Canucks in points-per-game, registering 53 points (21-32-53) in 52 games played. His scoring would hit its peak with a career year in his sophomore season with the Canucks. He registered 61 points (24-37-61) in 78 games to lead the team in scoring in 1971/72. At the end of that season, he shared the team's leading scorer Cyrus H. McLean Trophy with winger Andre Boudrias and was awarded the Cyclone Taylor Trophy as the Canucks MVP. He would remain a fan favourite as the team MVP, again receiving the Cyclone Taylor Trophy the following two seasons. He retired as a player following the 1973/74 season but returned in the 1976/77 season as Head Coach of the Canucks, coaching 125 games. In addition to his contributions as a player and coach, Orland Kurtenbach has also continued giving back to the franchise through his involvement with the Canucks Alumni.

THOMAS GRADIN*INDUCTED JANUARY 24, 2011

Thomas Gradin became one of the first European-born players to wear a Canucks uniform, making his debut in 1978. Gradin went on to establish many franchise records, including becoming the first Canuck to register 80 points in a single season and the first Canuck to reach 500 career points. Scoring 38 points in his 38 games with the club, Gradin played a major role in the Canucks first run to the Stanley Cup Final in 1982. Gradin led the team in scoring twice from 1980-82, and finished his playing career with an impressive 593 points in 677 games played. Following the conclusion of his playing career, Gradin became a member of the Vancouver Canucks scouting department. He now serves as Associate Chief Amateur Scout and has played an instrumental role in the Canucks' selections of star players such as Daniel and Henrik Sedin, Mattias Ohlund and Alex Edler.

HAROLD SNEPSTS*INDUCTED MARCH 14, 2011

Harold Snepsts logged 12 seasons on the Canucks' defence corps and established himself as a fan favourite due to his aggressive and hard-working style. He was named to the NHL All-Star game twice, as well as won the Canucks' Babe Pratt trophy for Most Outstanding Defenceman on four occasions. In 1982, Snepsts' solid presence and consistency on the Canucks blueline assisted the team in their run to the Stanley Cup Final, recording four assists and 50 penalty minutes in 17 games played. At the conclusion of his playing career, Snepsts had established himself as the Canucks' all-time leader in games played for the franchise at 781 games, through which he recorded 195 points and a franchise-leading 1446 penalty minutes at the time. Snepsts returned to the Vancouver Canucks organization in a scouting capacity where he continues to serve as an amateur scout.

KIRK MCLEAN*INDUCTED NOVEMBER 24, 2010

The Canucks' longest-serving goalie at 11 seasons, "Captain Kirk" quickly established himself as one of the most dominant goaltenders in club history. McLean still holds the all-time regular season franchise record for games played (516), wins (211) and shutouts (20). McLean's consistent performance was rewarded with two appearances at the NHL All-Star Game in 1990 and 1992, as well as two Vezina Trophy nominations. His game elevated in the playoffs as evidenced by franchise records in wins (34), shutouts (6) and games played (68) during the postseason. Perhaps most memorable was his performance in the 1994 Stanley Cup Final run that included 15 wins and four shutouts that remain franchise records. McLean now serves as an Ambassador of the club, giving his time to a number of community and fan-driven events.

PAT QUINN*INDUCTED APRIL 13, 2014

One of the "original" Canucks, Pat Quinn dressed for two seasons as a defenceman, collecting 18 points in 133 games before embarking on an illustrious career as Head Coach, General Manager and President of the Vancouver Canucks. His integrity, leadership and vision helped build the franchise into a contender. Through trades and drafting, Quinn brought some of the most memorable and impactful players, including Trevor Linden, Pavel Bure, and Markus Naslund. As Head Coach, Quinn accumulated a record of 141-111-28 in the regular season and 31-30 in the playoffs. He won the Jack Adams Award in 1992, sharing the stage with Pavel Bure, as the first major League award for a Canuck, and led the Canucks to the second of three franchise Stanley Cup Finals. Quinn continued to be an active member of the Canucks alumni until his passing in 2014. He will be inducted posthumously into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2016.

MATTIAS OHLUND*INDUCTED DECEMBER 16TH, 2016

Mattias Ohlund steadily progressed to become the most decorated defencemen in franchise history during his 11-year Canucks career and still holds the all-time record in points with 325. With a punishing slap shot and a gift for offence, the Pitte, Sweden native scored 93 goals in 1534 shots, which remain franchise records from the blue line today. Ohlund is a four-time recipient of the Babe Pratt Trophy awarded to the Canucks best defenceman (1998, 2000, 2004 and 2006), including his rookie season, when he was also nominated for the Calder Trophy. He was selected to the NHL All-Star Game in his sophomore season in 1999. In addition to being known for over a decade as the Canucks reliable anchor, Ohlund's leadership abilities left a lasting impact on the franchise. Donning an "A" on his sweater while with Vancouver, Ohlund acted as a mentor to a number of young Canucks, including Alex Edler and the Sedin twins.

EXECUTIVE

Commissioner Gary B. Bettman
Deputy Commissioner William Daly
Senior Executive Vice President of Hockey Operations Colin Campbell

Rule 78.7 – Coach's Challenge for Off-side on Goal: If the result of the challenge is that the play was "on-side", the goal shall count and the team that issued the challenge shall be assessed a minor penalty for delaying the game. It is important to note that a team does not have to possess its time-out in order to issue a challenge on those plays, and will not forfeit its time-out in the event of an unsuccessful challenge. Only one Coach's Challenge per team per stoppage will be permitted.

Rule 87.1 – Time-Outs: No time-out shall be granted to the team that commits an icing infraction.

Rule 80.2 & 80.4 – High-Sticking the Puck: No longer will the face-off be taken "all the way down" when a team high-sticks the puck in the attacking zone while it is on the power play. Face-off location will be determined in the same manner as when the team is at even strength (face-off in the neutral zone).

Rule 61 – Slashing: To curb slashing in and around the hands, there will be a stricter standard of enforcement. The Referees have been instructed that when a player is NOT attempting to play the puck and slashes on or near an opponent's hands, such Player should be assessed a slashing penalty.

Rule 76 – Face-Offs: There will be a stricter enforcement of the face-off procedure – especially with respect to the markings inside the face-off circle. Under section 76.4, the players will be instructed to set, so they will stand squarely facing their opponents' end of the rink, and clear of the ice markings (where applicable). The defensive Player will be instructed to set (skates and stick) then, the offensive Player will be instructed to set (skates and stick).

Applying the rule as written should improve the integrity of face-offs, reduce player head contact and make these plays safer for the Linesmen.

Note: At some point during Training Camp/Pre-Season, Officials will meet with the center ice/Face-off players prior to beginning a pre-season game to clearly explain their expectation. Hockey Ops will contact the GM/Coach to schedule this meeting.

Player Equipment and Uniforms: As we prepare for the start of the 2017.18 season, the following will serve as a reminder as it relates to the players uniform and how it should be worn. As discussed by the Competition Committee and endorsed by our General Managers, the following areas will be emphasized:

Rule 9.1 – Team Uniform: All players of each team shall be dressed uniformly with approved design and color of their helmets, sweaters, short pants, stockings, and skates. Altered uniforms of any kinds, i.e., Velcro inserts, over-sized jerseys, altered collars, etc., will not be permitted. Any player or goalkeeper not complying with this rule shall not be permitted to participate in the game. For violations, refer to 9.5.

This rule will be interpreted to include personal messaging of any kind on the game uniform or equipment, sloppy equipment (such as long hanging laces), ripped pants, etc.

We will also be addressing the incorrect use of players visors. The Officials have been instructed to be diligent with the observation and enforcement of this rule.

Rule 9.7 – Visors: Beginning with the 2013.14 season, all players who have fewer than 25 games of NHL experience must wear a visor properly affixed to their helmet. Visors are to be affixed to the helmets in such a fashion as to ensure adequate eye protection.

(Please remind all of your players that wear a visor that they must adhere to this rule.)

Players wearing their visors incorrectly, if witnessed by the Officials, will be removed from play and not permitted to return until their visors are properly affixed to their helmets. If a player returns to the ice (after a first offense and warning) while still in violation of the rule, he will be penalized.

ASSIST

An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touch the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED

A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL

After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL

A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER

A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY KILLING PERCENTAGE

Subtract the total number of power play goals allowed from total number of short-handed situations to get total number of power plays killed. Divide the total number of power plays killed by the total number of short-handed situations.

PLUS/MINUS

A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or short-handed goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or short-handed goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus/minus statistic.

POWER PLAY GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER PLAY PERCENTAGE

Total number of power play goals divided by total number of power play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE

Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORT-HANDED GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for short-handed as for power play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL

If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

SHUTOUT

If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND

If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

WINNING PERCENTAGE

Multiply the total number of games played by two to find the total amount of possible points available then divide by total amount of points obtained.

COACH'S RECORD

A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

MEDIA

CANUCKS SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT MEDIA POLICY STATEMENT

Canucks Sports & Entertainment (CSE) endeavours to provide members of the media with appropriate access and proper resources for the effective performance of their services and to cultivate an environment of mutual cooperation and respect. CSE expects all members of the media to act with honesty and integrity, to engage in factual and accurate reporting and to comply at all times with the policies and procedures set out in these guidelines or otherwise communicated by Canucks media relations staff. Members of the media should be aware that they will be held to the same standards of conduct whether providing services for an accredited organization or acting individually or on behalf of unaccredited organizations and whether performing services for traditional media outlets or emerging media outlets and social networks. CSE RESERVES THE RIGHT TO ENFORCE THESE MEDIA GUIDELINES BY REVOKING CREDENTIALS OR OTHERWISE RESTRICTING AND/OR DENYING ACCESS BY ANY PERSON TO ROGERS ARENA (OR BY LIMITING ACCESS TO CERTAIN AREAS OF THE ARENA) EITHER TEMPORARILY OR PERMANENTLY.

GENERAL RULES & POLICIES

- Cell phones cannot be used for any purpose in the Canucks dressing and workout rooms at any time (NHL media regulation). PDA's or other mobile devices equipped with cell phone capabilities may be used for email / messaging only.
- Stock and general still and video images are not permitted to be taken in the dressing and workout rooms, i.e., you cannot stand at the entrance and pan the room, or take stock and general images of players or the room.
- Reporters or photographers using an audio recorder, still camera or mini-cam for audio or video recording purposes must inform the person being interviewed (as well as Canucks media relations staff), prior to making any recording, if that recording will or may be posted on the internet.
- All video must adhere to the NHL's broadcast policies available on NHL.com. Material may only be used for editorial purposes.

ACCREDITATION

Season passes: Issued to print, radio and television media members who cover the Vancouver Canucks on a regular basis as part of their work requirements.

Single Game Passes: Media members from accredited radio, print or television outlets requesting a single-game media pass must make a request at least 48 hours prior to the game. Requests should be submitted online at canucks.com/mediarelations. Contact Alfred De Vera (alfred.devera@canucks.com) for access information.

Members of the media are reminded that press box seating is reserved for working members of media covering a particular game or series of games. Media passes must be displayed at all times. In all cases, passes are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Rogers Arena and forfeiture of the credential. Please see back of game pass for team and League policies.

The Vancouver Canucks are unable to provide access to new and emerging media except in special circumstances or on a case-by-case basis due to space constraints and demand in our press box and locker room areas.

INTERVIEWS

In accordance with NHL policy, game-day interviews are permitted within five minutes following the morning skate and within five minutes following the conclusion of a game. Canucks Head Coach Travis Green will conduct game-day interviews in the media workroom located across the hall from the dressing rooms.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers on assignment from accredited newspapers, magazines and wire services may apply for single game photo passes by submitting the request online at canucks.com/mediarelations at least 48 hours prior to the game they desire to shoot. Beat photographers will receive season passes and will shoot from their assigned seats. Assignment photographers will be designated a seat through Alfred De Vera.

CSE does not allow photographers in the team dressing or workout rooms on the road, or at home, without prior authorization. Photographers must request access to the Canucks dressing and workout rooms for a specific assignment. The granting of access will be at CSE's sole discretion and typically will only be granted for direct and specifically requested player interviews or 'events' such as a photo of a new goaltender mask, milestone goal, etc.

Strobe Rentals: Those photographers wishing to set up strobe lighting must first contact Leah Browne for the necessary authorization, at 604.899.4839. Strobes are often booked quickly and photographers are encouraged to make requests as early as possible.
